EMPOWERING THE... Continued from page 1 entrepreneurs and help them set up business. This scheme has helped the talented and educated youth from weaker sections to start their own business and become powerful and serve the interests of the community effectively.

The Modi government has declared five places related to the life of Dr. Ambedkar as ‘Vedyottam’ and has been developing them.

The government has made stringent provisions in the ‘RERA’ for the development of basic infrastructure. The government has set up a Commission to solve the problems of the nomadic tribes. One scheme named after Nanaji Deshmukh has also been started to establish hostels for the youth of this community.

The government has also introduced ‘Sugamya Bharat’ program, where more than 146.5 million people are covered under different schemes for seniors. The Commission has also started a scheme where entrepreneurs associated with agriculture are given loans to buy inputs, and a scheme has been started to get women entrepreneurs to take up house construction.
